

The diagram consists of a horizontal line with several vertical tick marks. Below the line, there are several horizontal segments of varying lengths, some of which are aligned with the tick marks. The segments are colored in a light blue/purple shade.